

Name _____

Date _____

In class we have been working on volume and capacity. Encourage your child to explore with different size containers to see which ones have the most and least capacity. Children could experiment by pouring liquid from one container to another in the sink or bathtub.

The homework you will see for the next few days will all be a review of fluency work from Module 1.

Each rectangle shows 6 objects. Circle 2 different sets within each. The first one is done for you.
